INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Relevant criminal convictions are those convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawful supplying of controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking.

If you enter "Yes" in this box we will ask you for further information.

If you are applying for courses involving work with children or vulnerable adults you must tell us about any criminal convictions, including spent convictions and cautions (including verbal cautions) and bindover orders. For these courses you may need an enhanced disclosure document from the Scottish Criminal Record Office Disclosure Service. The College will send you the appropriate documents to fill in if necessary.

Personal data provided on your application form will be entered onto the College's computerised record system. This data will, at all times, be used strictly in accordance with the principles laid down by the Data Protection Act (1998).

Completed application forms should be returned to Rev. Ian Birch at the address at the top of the form.
